MEETING OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE MARYLAND AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.—The trustees of this institution held a meeting on Wednesday evening of last week at the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, in the County building on North Calvert street. The President of the College, James T. Earle, Esq., in the chair; Rev. Dr. Van Bokkelen, Secretary. A considerable amount of important business connected with the institution was transacted, among which were the receipt of the resignation of James M. Carlisle, Esq., trustee from the District of Columbia, and Dr. Pinckney, of Prince George's county, transferred to fill the vacancy. Charles B. Calvert, Esq., was then appointed in the place of Dr. Pinckney.

It being the purpose of the trustees to begin operations, at an early day, under the new administration, the following gentlemen were appointed as visitors to the Institution, being one from each county and two from Baltimore city:—Alleghany county, J. P. Roman; Anne Arundel, Col. Hughes; Baltimore city, Dr. J. G. Morris, F. W. Brune; Baltimore county, J. Howard McHenry; Calvert, Dr. Mackall; Caroline, R. M. J. Jump; Carroll, John B. Boyle; Cecil, John C. Groome; Charles, Walter Mitchell; Dorchester, Wilson W. Byrn; Frederick, L. M. Steiner, M. D.; Harford, H. W. Archer; Howard, John E. Carroll; Kent, Col. Wilkins; Montgomery, A. B. Davis; Prince George's, Daniel Clarke; Queen Anne's, John R. Emory; St. Mary's, C. Billingslea; Somerset, George R. Dennis; Talbot, Samuel Hambleton; Washington, Dr. Maddox; Worcester, John R. Franklin.

The Board adjourned to meet at the College in June next, at which time, the committee on reorganization, consisting of J. Howard McHenry, Esq. Rev. Dr. Van Bokkelen and Col. W. H. Purnell, are to submit a report for the action of the trustees.

It will be remembered, as previously stated, that the public lands donated by Congress to Maryland, have been appropriated to this College, and by an act of the Legislature of the State, the business of the College is to be conducted by a board of eleven trustees, four of whom are to consist of Governor Swann, Lieutenant-Governor Cox, Rev. Dr. Van Bokkelen and Hon. Mr. Frazier, forming the State Board of Education; the remaining seven representing the stockholders of the institution. The College is not to be conducted hereafter as an Agricultural Institute alone, but to include scientific, as well as military instruction.
